“First and foremost every Catholic educational institution is a place to encounter the living God who in Jesus Christ reveals his transforming love and truth.”

- Pope Benedict XVI

TIOF Section 2:

A framework for religious education in Catholic schools:

We believe;

We learn from the Church;

We understand.

“the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.” - Matthew 13:52

TIOF Section 1:

Describes the nature and purpose of Catholic religious education.

“Section 2 defines the eight ‘Strands of Faith’.

It is intended to provide readers with an accurate outline of the main teachings and traditions of the Catholic faith which will be addressed in Catholic Religious Education. It provides relevant extracts from the Creed, Scripture and Tradition (Church Documents, particularly the catechism of the Catholic Church.”

“With love set before you... give all your instructions that he who hears you may believe, and by believing may hope, and by hoping may love.”
- St Augustine

Section 4:

Detailed advice on the core learning which is embedded in each experience and outcome.

“All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people’s lives and teaching them to be holy.”
- 2Timothy3:16

TIOF Section 3:

This has as its focus:
Jesus, the Teacher;
the person of the teacher;
and the importance of personal witness and key teaching approaches.

“Let these words I urge you today be written on your heart. You shall repeat them to your children...”

Deuteronomy 6;7

Sacred Scripture:

All core learning relies on the use of scripture.
Presentations using The NRSV translation are given to support learning and teaching.
